

Crieff Hills is committed to serving the needs of congregations, individuals and groups in offering facilities and on-site programs that equip people for service, foster discovery and develop leadership and community building skills.

"It is a joy for me to be the Managing Director at Crieff Hills Community. Meeting people who are eager for 'time apart' to be refreshed and renewed is wonderful and it is a pleasure to extend Crieff Hills' hospitality. Tucked within 250 acres of hiking trails, quiet spaces and an extensive variety of buildings is this place for individuals and groups to engage in special times of sharing and discovering Crieff Hills' hosted or self led programs. This campaign, reaching out to embrace guests in new ways, makes us all a part of the exciting story that is Crieff Hills. I encourage you to support the 'Building A Place Apart' Campaign."

LAWRENCE PENTLOW, MANAGING DIRECTOR

"Crieff Hills Community is a place quite unlike any other. It provides people with opportunities to enjoy special times away on their own, or with friends old or new. Over the years so many people have captured the vision of Crieff Hills and together have made it a valued and cherished place. Now it enters another stage of its development with the provision of increased personal retreat settings and improvements to conference and gathering facilities. I am grateful for Crieff Hills and I ask for your help as together we make the 'Building A Place Apart' Campaign a success."

JARVIS SHERIDAN,
CONVENER OF THE MACLEAN ESTATE COMMITTEE

"Crieff Hills is a terrific place. I believe in Crieff Hills and care about it. The 'Building A Place Apart' Capital Campaign is a way for all of us to continue to develop Crieff Hills as 'A Place Apart To Come Together' – which is a good thing for our society. I urge you to join me in giving this Campaign your generous support, and thereby ensure the ongoing enrichment of a wonderful retreat and conference centre."

DAVE PHILLIPS, CAMPAIGN CHAIR

"We are called to glorify God by building Christian Community and fostering spiritual growth and leadership skills among Presbyterians and the larger Christian church."
